

THE GLASGOW QUIZ

thingstodoingla.com

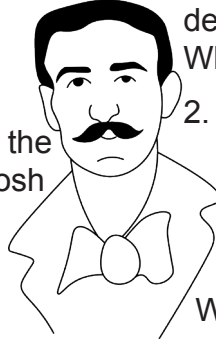

How well do you know Scotland's most populous city?

Glasgow's Subway is the third oldest in the world. Which city has the oldest system?

2. Budapest

Which iconic Glasgow building is one of the first big projects Charles Rennie Mackintosh worked on?

2. The Lighthouse

In 1926 in Glasgow, John Logie Braid demonstrated a technical breakthrough. What was it?

2. First public transmission of a TV

Which stadium holds the Europe record for highest ever attendance at a football match with around 150 000 guests?

1. Hampden Stadium

The Hunterian is a museum placed at the University of Glasgow. What is it named after?

1. Dr. William Hunter

The Glasgow Tower was built in 2001 and holds a Guinness World Record. For what?

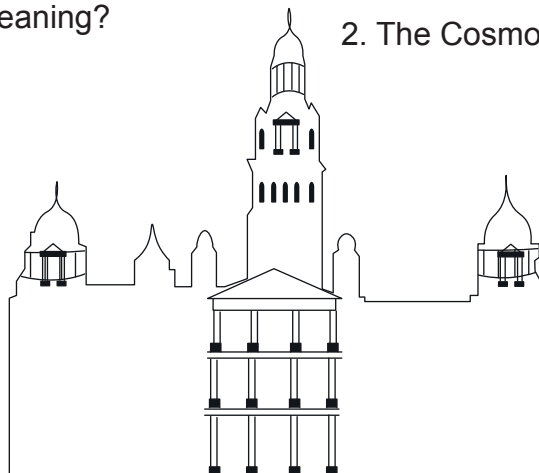

3. Tallest fully rotating freestanding structure

Glasgow in Gaelic is "Glashu". What has the word been traced back to meaning?

1. Dear Green Place

Which now-famous dish was invented by Shish Mahal in Kelvinbridge in the 70s?

2. Tikka Masala

Which is the oldest building in Glasgow?

2. Glasgow Cathedral

The conference COP26 was meant to be hosted in Glasgow this November, until it got postponed until 2021. Which organisation heads the conference?

1. United Nations

Glasgow City Chambers is rumoured to have more marble than the Vatican - what was the estimated cost (adjusted to today's money)?

1. £40 million

The Glasgow Film Theatre reopened in 1973. What was it previously known as?

2. The Cosmo